Professor A.F.L. Beeston (1911-1995) was one of the leading Arabists of his day, with a long and illustrious academic career. This volume contains reprints of all 18 of Beeston's papers from the Proceedings of the Seminar for Arabian Studies, with the addition of five previously unpublished works (Sabaic Inscriptions on Wadi Siham; The Arabian Aromatics Trade in Antiquity; Sabaean Origins; Thoughts on the "Passive"; On Etymologizing). A personal reminiscence by W.W. Müller is also included.
